Indian Relay Team In Washington Meet

The William and Mary relay team, composed of Red Hancock, Spraker, Winder, "Scrap" Chandler and "Rats" Wesson, left here yesterday, accompanied by Coach Tucker Jones, to go to Baltimore and Washington, where they will participate in a series of inter-collegiate track meets at Johns Hopkins University and Georgetown University. The first four named were seen last night in action against Johns Hopkins in a mile relay, while Chandler and Winder also ran in the open half-mile.

Tonight at Georgetown, the Indians face their real test. They are matched in a mile relay against teams representing the University of Maryland, University of West Virginia and University of Richmond. "Scrap" will be the center of attraction in this race, when he again meets Tharpe, to whom he lost a race by inches in the recent meet with the Red and Blue.

The Georgetown meet is an annual affair and is a feature of the national intercollegiate track program. Leading universities in the South Atlantic and Eastern divisions are represented at Baltimore and many famous athletes are there, including Joie Ray, Loren Murchison, Clarke and others of national reputation.

The Indian milers competed with a powerful combination of runners at Johns Hopkins last night, and met their stiffest opponents so far in the men who captured second place in the South Atlantic meet of 1923.

Coach Jones' men were in the pink of condition when they left, and are fully prepared to hold up their end, no matter how stiff the competition.

Spanish Dances And Lectures Offered

The Spanish Club, beginning next week, will give a series of three public entertainments for the purpose of raising funds to buy Spanish books for the library. At present the number of reference books and literature for parallel reading in Spanish is very limited. It is for this reason that the club has decided to launch a campaign to raise funds. They have secured the hearty co-operation of the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A., both of which have pledged themselves to take fifty tickets.

The entertainments, to be given in the Chapel, will consist of a series of lectures in English on Mexico; musical solos, both instrumental and vocal; and typical Spanish classical dances. The lectures will be illustrated with numerous and interesting pictures collected by Professor Cas-

The regular meeting of the Clayton-Grimes Biology Club will be held tonight at 7:30, in the Science Hall.

A program has been arranged and all members are urged to be present.

Announce Courses And Plans For S. S. In Europe

A remarkable and attractive offer is being made to the men students of this and other colleges and universities in the form of an educational tour in France during the coming summer. By combining travel in Europe with study of subjects having essentially a European aspect, the William and Mary Summer School in Europe provides a unique educational opportunity to American undergraduates.

The plan of the 1924 session, in brief, consists of four courses of thirty lectures each, given by Dr. C. C. Fichtner, on subjects which will train men to fill positions in the United States consular and diplomatic service or in foreign trade. In addition, students may elect courses in French at the French universities in such subjects as French grammar, French history, art, literature, contemporary civilization, etc. Credit

Committee Approves Bill To Loan Cannon

According to dispatches from Washington, a bill introduced into the House of Representatives by Congressman Montague, providing for the loan of two cannon captured from the British forces at Yorktown, to the College of William and Mary, has been approved by the committee of military affairs. It is expected that the bill will pass both houses with little trouble, and the cannon which are now at Fort Monroe, will be turned over to the college for an indefinite period.

William and Mary's close connection with the Revolution and the fact that it furnished besides a military company, the president of the first Continental Congress and four signers of the Declaration of Independence, including its author, is set forth in the preamble of the Montague bill. It will be remembered also that during the campaign around Yorktown, George Washington had his headquarters at the old Wythe house on Palace Green. French soldiers were quartered at the college and it was at this time that the president's house was first burned, shortly after its evacuation by Lord Cornwallis. It was restored personally by the King of France.

To All Voters

The ballot box for the Echo election will be in front of the Dining Hall from dinner hour until seven-thirty this evening. It is the desire of the staff to receive a full vote from the students, and every student is requested to fill out his or her ballot and drop it in the box within those hours.

Echo Ballot Box Open All Afternoon

The Annual Nominating Primary for the Echo election will be held this afternoon. The ballot box will be on the dining hall porch from dinner hour until seven-thirty p. m., and the staff requests that every student mark his ballot, which will be found elsewhere in this issue, sign it, and deposit it in the ballot box before seven-thirty this evening.

This ballot today is a preferential-primary vote. The highest two candidates for each honor will be candidates in the regular election to be held next week, at which time regular ballots will be printed and distributed and a systematic election conducted. If you want your candidate to appear in the general election vote for him or her now so that his or her name may get full consideration in lining up the candidates for the regular election next week. In case of a tie for first or second place in the primary election, three names will appear upon the regular ballot next week.

The attention of students is called to a letter from Dr. Pollard printed elsewhere. Take the election seriously. It is not a joke, though some of the heads may appear ridiculous. Vote your honest opinion, and make the election a real honest-to-goodness one. Vote conscientiously—don't play politics and let's see who the real winners are.

Debate Council Postpones Tryouts

Due to a general misunderstanding of the plans for the preliminaries for choosing the Inter-Collegiate debating team, the Debate Council has decided to postpone the preliminaries until Friday night, February 29, on which date the try-outs will be held in the College Chapel at 8 p. m.

The question for debate will be: "Resolved, that the tendency away from representative and towards direct government invites inefficiency and unnecessary expense upon the people."

All undergraduate men students are eligible for the preliminaries, and candidates may debate either side of the question. The team selected, which will consist of four men, will represent the College in all inter-collegiate debates during the year. Dr. Hamilton, Dr. Morton and Professor Spicer will serve as judges, with Dr. Pollard presiding.

Every man in college having forensic ability is urged to enter the preliminaries. William and Mary has a hard debate schedule, including meets with other schools both in the Tri-State Debate and the Virginia Inter-collegiate Debating League.

New Sorority Pledge

The Kappa Alpha Theta sorority announces the pledging of Evelyn Virginia Byrd, of Portsmouth, Virginia.

Quint Off At Noon Play Spiders Tonight

The old Indian team left at noon today for Richmond, where they will invade the Spider web for the second time this year. The first meeting of the two institutions in Richmond this year proved extremely favorable for the Indians. This will be the second basketball game of this season between these two schools; the first battle went to the W. & M. quint by a 25 to 22 score. Coach Tasker has been putting the finishing touches on his five this last week and the games on the two-weeks' trip will prove extremely valuable to the William and Mary five in experience gained, although they dropped the majority of the games. For the last two years the Indians have won the game on their own court but have dropped the contest on the Richmond floor. It is about time this precedent was broken. By defeating the Spider team for the second time the W. & M. quint can claim a successful season, although they have lost a great number of games.

After the game with Lynchburg last night the team should be "all set to go." The team plays Randolph-Macon Saturday night in Ashland.

Officers Chosen By The Dramatic Club

For the purpose of electing officers for 1924-25, a business meeting of the Dramatic Club was called by Director E. M. Gwathmey in the college chapel February 13.

William E. Bull, who recently proved his dramatic ability as the paternal Englishman in "Wurzel-Flummery," was unanimously elected president of the club. Other officers elected were George Reilly, vice-president, and Thomas Bland, secretary-treasurer.

By special dispensation the members of the cast of "The Tempest," which was presented under the direction of Dr. W. A. Montgomery last spring, were elected to membership in the club. These new members are Virginia Hardy, T. P. Chapman, A. J. Winder, G. H. Crutchfield and J. A. Doyle.

Dr. W. A. Montgomery, Mr. I. H. White and Miss Madeline Wales were chosen for honorary membership.

Notice To Summer School Students

All students who will attend Summer School and who wish rooms reserved, should see Mr. Bridges at once and make arrangements for reservation. The fee for room reservation is $3, and in order to be sure of getting the particular room desired, each student should pay his or her fee now and save future trouble.

Geo. Washington Here Tomorrow Evening

Wouldn't you like to meet George Washington? Wouldn't you like to shake his hand, to hear him talk, and to prove by close observation how undeveloped was the photography of his day?

It is not so impossible as it seems. Listen: If you are a girl collect a hoop-skirt, ten yards of lace, some pantalettes and a beauty spot. If you are a man, collect one pair of knee-breeches, a long-tail coat and a buttonhole bouquet.

Thus fortified, whether boy or girl, come to the Jefferson Hall gym tomorrow night, give your name to the page at the door and, while he shouts loudly, "Miss Jerusha Abbott," or "Mr. Wurzel Flummery," you will be gazing rapturously at the veritable George himself beside whom stands the dainty Martha smiling an invitation to you.

Colonial days all back again, Virginia reels, negro clog-dancing and the old plantation quartet singing, "That Watermill Hanging on the Vine."

Perhaps, too, you'll win the prize (which happens to be a live wire), for the best costume or lead the reel with the prettiest girl upon the floor.

But what's all this about, you ask? And I shout at you, "The Colonial Ball" tomorrow night.—T. B.

Alpha Kappa Psi's Sponsoring Lectures

Alpha Kappa Psi, the commercial fraternity of the college, has arranged a program of lectures by local and outside speakers for the remainder of the year. Some of these meetings will be open only to members of the fraternity; others will be open to the college and the local public.

The first of these lectures will be given on February 28, in the Physics lecture room in the Science building by Dr. Fichtner, who will speak on the "Economic Position of France." The lecture will be illustrated by stereopticon views of graphs and charts. This meeting is open to the college.

granted for the successful completion of this work will count for a degree of William & Mary or any institution accepting William & Mary credits. In this way an undergraduate may secure an always coveted trip abroad at minimum cost without the loss of valuable time in absence from college. Recognizing this advantage, a number of students who normally work during the summer in order to pay part of their college expenses, have decided to work during the Spring or Autumn quarters and do their academic work in this summer school.

The William and Mary Summer School in Europe, it is intended, shall be an annual event in the college calendar. The group shall be under the leadership of one or more members of the faculty. One country each year shall be selected for the location of the school. For example, in 1924, France has been selected. In 1925 the school might be held in England; in 1926 in Italy; in 1927 in Germany, and so on. Although the group in France will consist only of men, it is expected that in later years the institution will be co-educational.

Courses Given in 1924 by W. & M.

These courses will be given in the English language and will be open to foreign students as well as to members of the William and Mary group. The courses are based in large part on the subjects required by the U. S. Department of State for candidates for positions in foreign service. The training, however, is also of great benefit to men who plan to teach or go into law or business.

1. Modern European History; 30 lectures; 3 cr. hours.

The history of France, Great Britain, Germany and other important countries of Europe since 1870; special stress on the causes, events and results of the World War. The military campaigns of the war will be studied along with visits to important sectors of the western front. The diplomatic history of Europe since 1918, the present situation and the political parties in European countries.

2. Current Economic Problems; 30 lectures; 3 cr. hours.

This course will emphasize the international economic situation, taking up such problems as reparations, war debts, European governmental finance, currency problems, capital movements, European banking, European productive power and its relation to American business, European markets, tariffs, etc.

3. International Trade; 30 lectures; 3 cr. hours.

Theories of international trade, statistics, commercial treaties, expert technique, financing foreign shipments, foreign credits and collections.

4. International Law; 30 lectures; 3 cr. hours.

History and sources of international law; persons in international law; international law of peace, rights and obligations of states, jurisdiction, property, diplomacy and international relations in times of peace, treaties, peaceful settlement of disputes, etc.; international law of war, persons in war, status of property at sea, conduct

THE DOUBLE-DRIBBLE

Why is it that when a football or baseball team goes on a trip the whole College turns out the night before to a big celebration resounding with speeches and cheers and the next day the team is accompanied to the station amid great gusto and eclat and given a real send-off with plenty of Indian spirit; but on the other hand when a basketball or track team leaves for a trip they literally sneak out of town and no one knows they are away until they read in the paper the account of the game or meet, and then come forth with "aw' that team's no good." It takes just as much college spirit and backing to make a successful basketball or track team as it does a brilliant eleven or a world beating nine. Think it over and come out and watch the teams in action occasionally and find out who's on your teams.

* * * *

By defeating Richmond again tonight the Indians can boast of a pretty successful season. The games played on the home court have been won by the closest of scores; a one or two point margin deciding several games. While on the trip the strongest teams in the State were played first and towards the last of a twelve game trip any team is bound to be played out.

* * * *

The relay team competing last night in the Georgetown game, rest over today in the Capital City and tomorrow night enter the Johns Hopkins' meet in Baltimore. The team will get another chance at the University of Richmond as they are running against Richmond, University of Maryland and the University of West Virginia. This should be a fairer test of the real strength of the teams as the track is a great deal larger.

* * * *

Cofer on this trip seems to have taken over the position at forward which has been troubling Coach Tasker all the season. The big forward, although coming out late in the season on account of a fractured shoulder sustained in football season, has proven his ability, even though handicapped by his short period of training. Cofer played the entire game against the Spider Quint up there last year.

Virginia's crack relay team seems to be putting the old State forward slightly in the athletic world. Well, it is about time that some team from this State besides the William and Mary baseball nine stepped into national prominence.

Kappa Sigs Defeat Sigma Dels 1 Point

In the only game on the college night program, the Kappa Sigma's triumphed over the Sigma Delta Tau's by the close margin of one point. The game showed more real basketball on the part of both teams than any game so far played. The S. D. T. excelled in the art of passing, but the K. S. proved the better on cageing the ball after it had been worked under the goal. King, the lanky center for the Sigma Delta Tau's pulled the original — (?) of the fraternity season when he made a basket in the wrong goal.

The fraternity season has only about two more weeks to run, and those teams that are behind should make some arrangements with the management to get their games played off, so that the finals will not be delayed too long. Each team is supposed to have played three games up to date.

In the game Monday night, Meades, King and Delk starred for the Sigma Delta Tau's, while Stuart and Hillegas received the olive wreath for the Kappa Sigma's. King might be said to have starred for both teams.

Summary:

Some Good Boxing College Night Bill

The boxing on the college night program last Monday night brought forth more real skill and science than has been displayed heretofore. The first bout was between Jack Daly and "Young" Crigler, both of the middle-weight class. Both men started out cautiously, trying to feel the other out, but soon they "cut loose" and the new gloves were duly broken in. The first round was slightly in Daly's favor although Crigler pushed him to the limit. The second round was declared a draw by the judges, and when the men came up for the third and last round, they had blood in the eye as well as at the nose. This round was marked by considerable slugging and toward the last of it the opponents were worn down. The newspaper decision was awarded to Daly.

Sigma Phi Epsilon	1	1	.500
Kappa Sigma	1	2	.333
Sigma Delta Tau	1	2	.333
Pi Kappa Alpha	0	2	.000

The second bout was between two lightweights, Van Laer and "Little" Pollard. The first round was decidedly in Pollard's favor, Lan Laer attempting only to protect himself.

Pollard forced the fight to the limit in this round. The second round opened with Van Laer taking the offensive and Pollard was forced to cover to regain his wind from the first round. Second round to Van Laer. The seconds worked on their men during the minute interval to get them ready for the last round. This started off with a bang from both sides. Each was striving to deliver the telling blow. The fast punching continued until the bell ended the bout. After considerable consultation the judges declared the match a draw.

Referee—House.

SHORT RESUME OF THE CAROLINA TRIP

Team conquered the Navy lads by a very decisive score. It seemed as if the second trip was going to be a complete reversal of the first, starting off with such a clean victory. The whole team worked exceedingly well and were never in trouble. The final score was; Naval Base, 18; W. & M., 25.

The next night the team played its second game of the season against our greatest basketball rival among the Carolinians: namely, Wake Forest. The Wake Forest quint started off with a bang and at first it seemed as if it would be a walkaway, but along about the second quarter Hicks started cageing them from all angles. The last half the two teams were right on each other's heels with the score in doubt until the final whistle. Again the Wake Forest team had defeated us, this time by the close margin of three points. Score: Wake Forest, 30; W. & M., 27.

Guilford College was next played and by the difference in the football scores here last fall, it was thought that this game would be a walkaway, but the team was getting tired of the game and playing on a strange court every night they were laboring under difficulties. The final score was: Guilford, 35; W. & M., 31.

The next night the team staged a comeback. Not discouraged by the Guilford defeat, they entered the Elon game with a determination to win. Although the court was almost enclosed by a balcony so that over-head shooting space was narrowed down to only a few yards, the Indians managed to more than double the score. This was partly due to the close guarding of the Indians. Elon had the night before defeated North Carolina State by a decisive score.

Score: Elon, 10; W. & M., 25.

Lenoir College canceled their game for the following night, so a game was arranged with Greensboro. This team seemed to be above the average city quint and the Indians did not find the going quite as easy as had been expected from a substituted team. When the final smoke cleared away the score was found to be: Greensboro, 39; W. & M., 30.

Finishing up the two-weeks' trip against the strongest team in the South Atlantic division, if not in the South, the Indian quint met their final defeat of the trip. The first ten minutes the teams played on a par, but then Cobb and Carmichael, of the University of North Carolina team, broke loose and did not use a bit of discretion as to when to stop shooting goals. In this game, the team met their worst defeat of the season. Score: University of North Carolina, 54; W. & M., 16.

WILLIAMSBURG : VIRGINIA

Echoes From The College Campus

An appeal was made at Duc Chapel Friday morning by Howard Cain, president of the Sophomore class, for a full attendance next Friday at the celebration of Washington's birthday. Charles R. Crane, of Chicago, who will speak at the exercises, is a man of great influence, and all due respect should be accorded him.

Dr. J. Lesslie Hall addressed the Y. M. C. A. at their regular meeting Thursday evening of last week. In his talk, Dr. Hall described the beginnings of the "Y" at William and Mary, and said, "I have never known a Y. M. C. A. boy to really go bad."

At a meeting of a committee from the freshman class after chapel last Friday morning, the class emblems were selected. The flower chosen was the pansy, the colors white and purple, and the motto, "Character is the true diploma."

The class in industrial chemistry, under Dr. L. C. Lindsley, visited the industrial chemical plants of Norfolk and Berkeley last Saturday. They visited the Royster fertilizer plant and the Norfolk gas plant.

Eyes

There are eyes and eyes and eyes and eyes,
Of color and type untold.
There are eyes that are youthfully gay,
And eyes that are sadly old.
There are eyes that are self-conscious,
And eyes that flash and wink;
But the eyes, the EYES of the mountain girl.
They make one stop and think.
Joyous yet pathetic,
Strength in shyness found,
Quiet, all observing,
Deepest, darkest, round.
What meaning lies behind them?
What promise do they give?
How could one get such complex eyes
In the life that mortals live?
The mountain girl might answer,
In a voice as cool and clear
As the song of a mountain brooklet,
As the breeze of her homeland dear,
"They are born of Contemplation
Where the heavens the hills enfold,
Where the hills tower up to the heavens
And one is a Part of the Whole."
—B.

Sherritt Awarded Postum Adv. Prize

The $25 cash prize offered by the Postum Cereal Company for the best "ad" submitted by a member of the class in advertising, was won by L. W. Sherritt.

All members of the William and Mary class in advertising entered the contest and some very creditable work was turned out, according to Dr. C. C. Fichtner, who conducts the class.

HOW?

When the affair is over,
And the parting laughter
Has been soaked up by the big black sponge, Night,
And I see her home
For the first time—
After our first evening
Together
During which she laughed at my New gags
And also at my old ones,
And smiled and was gay;
And seemed to enjoy herself—
We start down the street,
And the moon casts strange
Shadows around the elms,
Then I worry—a cold sweat
Appears
Does she—am I—
Aw, shucks.
How shall I say,
Good-night?
—Y. Itsmee.

SPANISH LECTURES AND DANCES OFFERED

taneda during his tour through Mexico last summer. In order to enable the greatest number possible to attend, the entertainments will be held on Tuesday night, beginning February 26, at 7 o'clock in the chapel—and during the following two consecutive weeks. Each night new Spanish music and dances will be presented, and the lecture will cover only thirty minutes. The subjects to be discussed in the lectures are: "Mexico and Its History"; "Industrial Opportunities of Spanish America" and "Education in Mexico."

The tickets for the three performances may be purchased for 25 cents; but for each separate night, an admission of 10 cents will be charged those who do not hold tickets. It is expected that the entire student body will back this drive for funds, and buy tickets for the complete series. Members of the Spanish Club are conducting the sale of these tickets and will solicit the interest of their fellow students.

Professor C. E. Castaneda, of the Department of Modern Languages, will deliver the lectures on the various phases of life in Mexico. These novel talks will prove instructive, while the musical numbers and the native dances will be entertaining; because of their nature, it is assured that all will be extremely interesting. One purpose of the Spanish Club, Los Quixotes, is to acquaint William and Mary students with Spanish life and customs, and the programs have been planned with that idea in mind.

Powder Blues are for the man who likes a fabric that's strikingly different, yet in perfect taste.

They are vivid. For the most part, bright blue stripes and plaids on a gray back-ground—they are called Powder Blues because the effect, the tone, is blue, though the predominant color is neutral.

These patterns are exclusive with Society Brand. Powder Blues are going to be tremendously popular; it couldn't be otherwise; such fabrics, cut by Society Brand, mean the last word in the smart and unusual. We have plenty for your choice.

All-American Track Team Picked By A. A. U.

Mr. Rubien, secretary of the A. A. U., has selected an all-American college track team for Spalding's new athletic almanac. The team is made up of last years' college stars. Booth, from Johns Hopkins, is the only man in the South Atlantic division to receive a place on this mythical team. The men selected here should furnish strong competition when it comes to choosing candidates for the American Olympic team. The teams are as follows:

100-yard run—H. B. Lever, Pennsylvania.

220-yard run—F. K. J. Lovejoy, Cornell.

440-yard run—Allen Woodring, Syracuse.

880-yard run—Alan B. Helffrich, Penn State.

One-mile run—Edward Kirby, Cornell.

Two-mile run—J. V. H. Booth, Johns Hopkins.

Cross-country run—J. V. H. Booth, Johns Hopkins.

120-yard hurdles—Ivan H. Reilly, Kansas Agricultural.

220-yard hurdles—C. R. Brookins, University of Iowa.

Running broad jump—DeHart Hubbard, Michigan.

Running high jump—LeRoy Brown, Dartmouth.

Pole vault—J. Brooker, Michigan.

Putting 16-pound shot—Ralph Hills, Princeton.

Throwing the discus—T. J. Lieb, Notre Dame.

Throwing 16-pound hammer—F. D. Hootell, Bowdoin.

Throwing the javelin—H. Hoffman, Michigan.

Pentathlon—Charles West, Washington-Jefferson.

Many of the Silver Green and Gold rooters accompanied the team and the five should not be lacking in supporters tonight when they take the floor in the Millhiser gym at Westhampton.

The probable line-up is as follows:

Richmond.	W. & M.
Fray (Capt.).....RF.....	Cofer
Bell.....LF.....	Hicks (Capt.)
Demotte.....C.....	Sexton
Bethel.....RG.....	J. Todd
Miller.....LG.....	L. Todd

ANNOUNCE COURSES AND PLANS FOR S. S. IN EUROPE

of hostilities; documentary material of international law.

Other courses needed by the student of foreign trade and foreign affairs are given regularly at the College of William and Mary. None of the above listed courses is a duplicate of a course given at the college.

Courses Given at Nancy.

The University of Nancy during the month of July offers to foreign students courses in literature, history and geography of France, courses in pronunciation, translation, phonetics and readings in French; courses in electrotechnics, applied mineralogy and geology. Trips will be made to various industrial plants for which this section is noted.

Courses at Paris.

The Alliance Francaise, an institution of university, rank maintained exclusively in Paris for foreign students, offers the following courses:

1. French Institutions. Parlement; political parties; syndicalism, important associations; the French press.

2. French Art. Art appreciation; Architecture of the Middle Ages; Roman sculpture, Gothic art; Renaissance; French painting; contemporary painting and sculpture. All lectures are illustrated by visits to museums of Paris.

3. Classical French literature of the XVIII. century.

4. Classical French literature of the XVII. century.

5. French literature of the XIX. century.

6. Historical French Grammar.

7. Elementary, secondary and advanced French grammar.

The University of Paris offers the following courses during the month of August:

1. French classic literature of the XVII. and XVIII. centuries.

2. General history of France, 1482 to 1789.

3. Modern French Art: the XIX. and XX. centuries.

Itinerary of Travel.

The itinerary of the trip can not be definitely announced until the exact date of the departure of the steamer is ascertained. At present it seems that the party will sail on the Belgian Line on a merchant vessel which offers well appointed first-class cabins for eighteen passengers. Dr. Fichtner will give a number of lectures on board ship going and coming, this making more time available for excursions and sight-seeing while in France. The William and Mary group will have to be limited to eighteen. The first seventeen men signing up for the school will be given the places.

MONDAY AND TUESDAY
FEBRUARY 25 AND 26.

"Mighty Like A Rose."

The story of a beautiful young girl, her violin, and the magic that her melody wrought in the hearts of a band of thieves who would use her for their crooked schemes—and how one of them was willing to sacrifice everything that she might know that he loved her. It is a story that will linger in your memory like the echo of an unforgettable song. It clings to the heart, and sings in the soul.

WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY
FEBRUARY 27 AND 28.

"Woman Proof."

No girl was going to sting him! No, sir! Then a beautiful little "zipper" came buzzing along!—Thomas Meighan in a George Ade story—you know what that means. It's the bee's knees! Prominent in the cast are: Lila Lee, Robert Agnew, Vera Reynolds and Mary Astor.

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY
FEBRUARY 29 AND MARCH 1.

"The Village Blacksmith."

Produced by William Fox, and founded on Longfellow's immortal poem.

Wythe Law Club Met February 16

The monthly meeting of the Wythe Law Club was held Friday night, February 16. The features of the evening were the five-minute talks that had been assigned by Chancellor Peebles.

It was announced that the next meeting of the club would be on March 14. V. L. Sexton will give a talk on Chancellor Kent that will be the principal event of that meeting. Those present were: P. P. Peebles, chancellor; W. J. Holiday, C. E. Holiday, Ted Dalton, George A. Downing and Professor Hamilton.

Spanish Club To Meet 7:00 Tonight

The Spanish Club will hold an important meeting in Jefferson Hall tonight at 7 o'clock, and all members are urgently requested to attend. Plans will be discussed for participation in the coming entertainments to be given by the club for the library benefit. Unique designs for a Spanish Club pin have been designed, from which will be chosen the representative insignia.

A one-act playlet in Spanish, "La Cesta de Coles," will feature the literary program. Various unique selections, peculiar to Spanish customs, serve to help in rendering attractiveness to each session of the club.
